

Need a MEDICAL APPEAL?

Students may be considered for an exception to work as a student employee with fewer than required credits for approved medical reasons. In order to be considered for a medical appeal the student must follow the instructions listed below.

PLEASE NOTE: Medical appeals are typically granted on a short-term basis. It is required that the student be enrolled in at least some credit(s) required for graduation in the completion of his or her major or minor coursework in order to be considered.

For questions regarding the medical appeal process, please contact Student Employment at (801) 422-3562, ext 2.
